Preface

Lanka Mahavidyalaya was established on the 20th July, 1979 in the northern outskirts of Lanka town which is situated in the southernmost part of the district of Hojai, Assam. Lanka is situated at a distance of about 180 Kms. from Guwahati, the Capital city of Assam and about 10 Kms. from Hojai, the District Headquarter town. The site where the college stands today spreads over an area of about 17 Acres amid green surroundings.

Lanka Mahavidyalaya is an affiliated college of Gauhati University and enlisted under University Grants Commission (UGC), offers Higher Secondary (10+2) and Three Year Degree Course in Arts and Commerce Streams. Lanka being a backward area, there was no institution of Higher Education within a distance of 20 Kms. of Lanka before the establishment of Lanka Mahavidyalaya and a vast majority of students could not afford Higher Education due to financial constraint. As the college community has been exerting its sincere and untiring efforts to enlighten the economically and educationally backward people of the area, the scenario has changed for the better to a great extent.

The college started its mission with only 130 students at Lanka High School premises. It was shifted in 1982 to its present site which spreads over a sprawling area amid green surroundings. At present the college is having a total strength of about 1750 enrolments which reflects the progress of the Institution day by day.

The college has been Accredited 'B' Grade by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) in February, 2005 and in November, 2015
